

Prayer calling forth our angels

Holy Spirit, send us our guardian angels, As they rolled away the stone at the tomb (Matthew 28:2-7), may angels remove the obstacles that keep us from new life in Jesus.

To the east, where Gabriel once stood before Zechariah (Luke 1:11-20), reminding us that even in doubt, Your promises will be fulfilled.

To the west, where angels sang to shepherds (Luke 2:8-15), inspire us to bring Your good news to those in darkness who need hope.

To the south, where an angel called Joseph to Egypt to escape Herod's wrath (Matthew 1:20-24),
help us to overcome sin, and to follow Your will despite our failures.

To the north, where the angel directed Philip (Acts 8:26), lead us out of our comfort zones to make a difference.

Like the angels who freed Peter (Acts 12:7-11),
send our guardian angels to break the chains that bind our friends and family.

May Raphael who healed Tobit's blindness (Tobit 11:7-15), teach us to be a healing presence in our lives.

May Michael, who cast out darkness (Revelation 12:7-9), stand beside us in our battles against our darkness and fear.

May the angels who stood at Jesus Christ's ascension into heaven (Acts 1:10-11),
remind us always to keep our eyes on the Father's plans for us.

Like Mary who said "yes" to Gabriel, with the Holy Spirit, may we be open to our guardian angels this day.

Amen.
